

Confirmation Class

Each year confirmation classes are offered to young people seeking church membership. Each youth has an adult mentor who participates in classes and special events, including a retreat to Camp Pyoca.

As the students are received into the church as members, they write a faith statement and lead the congregation in worship.